

Veree Brown
Board Director

Veree Hawkins Brown is a Financial Advisor with both broker/dealer and investment advisor certifications (Series 7, Series 66, TX Insurance License). She focuses on helping individuals achieve their long-term financial goals. Veree Hawkins Brown's corporate background includes leadership roles at Sabre Holdings in finance and marketing in which she led global cross-functional teams in the development and execution of company-wide budgets and forecasts, project analysis, global marketing strategies and campaigns (in multiple languages), technology integration, product management, and event planning. As the leader of an international airline account relationship team at Travelocity.com LLP, she oversaw contract negotiations for all airline clients and the implementation of online marketing campaigns to drive conversion rates higher for online airline ticket purchases and vacation packages purchases. She is passionate about gaining a deep understanding of clients and how best to meet their needs.

Veree was elected to Texas Women's Foundation Board in 2021. She has served on the TXWF Investment Advisory Committee since 2018 and is a member of the Village Giving Circle.

Veree has held various leadership positions as a community volunteer, where she leveraged her strong project management and team building skills. These leadership experiences range from working with small groups of 5-10, to working across the global alumni base of Dartmouth College as an elected member of the Association of Alumni. She holds a BBA in English Literature from Dartmouth College and a MBA from Southern Methodist University. She currently resides in Dallas, TX.
