

Darcy Cowell

Board Director

WLI Council Co-Chair

Darcy Cowell is a Principal in EY's People Advisory Services practice focused on advising senior executives through large-scale, global transformations. With more than 20 years of consulting experience, Darcy is passionate about developing her teams and coaching her clients to excellence. She has deep experience in the people elements of digital transformation and has significant experience consulting across service delivery transformations. Darcy graduated from Baylor University with a Bachelor of Business Administration with a focus on Marketing.

Darcy has served on the board of Texas Women's Foundation since 2020 and serves on the Programs Committee.