

Sarah K Miller
Board Director

Sarah K. Miller is the President and Chairwoman of the Kozmetsky Family Foundation, formed in 2016 as one of two foundations generated from RGK Foundation. During her nearly 18 years as a family trustee at RGK, she served as chair of the Grants and Adjunct Committees.

After graduating from the University of Texas at Austin in 2000 with a BBA in Finance, Sarah began her nonprofit career as a program intern at the Austin Community Foundation. She also served on the board of the Austin Film Festival and the Gala Committee for the Texas Film Hall of Fame.

Upon moving to Dallas in 2001, Sarah became the Volunteer Coordinator for The Women's Museum. Her community activities have included Meals on Wheels, Promise House, Highland Park United Methodist Church and Hyer Elementary.

She has recently served on the boards of The National Center for Family Philanthropy and Wee Volunteer, as well as currently being a trustee at Southwestern Medical Foundation and a member of Texas Women's Foundation's Board and Investment Advisory Committee.

Sarah and her husband, Chris, live in University Park raising three daughters Natalie, Taylor and Caroline.
