

Melissa Orth

Treasurer/Finance Committee Chair

Melissa is currently the President and CEO of The Legacy Senior Communities, a Jewish faith-based continuum care community in Dallas, Texas. She was previously the COO/CFO of Greenhill School, a co-educational independent school serving 1,300 students, pre-kindergarten through 12th grades, in Addison, Texas, from 2000 – 2017.

She earned her B.B.A. from Kansas State University in 1986 and is a certified public accountant. Prior to joining Greenhill, she was the Vice President of Finance for the National Office of the American Heart Association and was a senior manager in the audit and business advisory division of Arthur Andersen, LLP.

Melissa currently serves as a board member and Treasurer for the Enrollment Management Association, a national agency serving independent schools, and is also a board member and Treasurer for the St. Philip's School and Community Center. Additionally, she serves as a board member of Leading Age Texas, a member association providing professional development and advocacy services to not for profit senior service organizations. Melissa also serves as a board director and a member of the finance committee for Texas Women's Foundation. Previously, Melissa served as a member of the board of directors for the National Business Officers Association from 2009 until 2017, serving as Chair the last two years of her service. She is a past board member and Treasurer for Planned Parenthood of North Texas and past finance committee member of the Susan G. Komen Foundation.
