

Charmaine Tang

Board Director

Charmaine Tang is a Senior Client Strategist for BNY Mellon Wealth Management based in Dallas, Texas. In this role, she works on complex relationships with endowments and foundations, nonprofit organizations, high-net-worth individuals, executives, and family offices on their strategy, investment management, planning, and governance in select markets in the U.S., including Dallas and New York.

Charmaine has 25+ years of experience in investment banking, investments, and private banking. Prior to joining BNY Mellon, She was an Executive Director with J.P. Morgan Private Bank and the Philanthropic Market Executive for the Central and West regions at Bank of America Private Bank.

While in New York, Charmaine was an Equity Analyst at Citi Investment Research and an Investment Banker at Morgan Stanley. She has appeared on CNBC, Fox News, MSNBC, NBC, NPR, PBS, and other media as an investment expert.

Charmaine is passionate about philanthropy and community service. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Texas Women's Foundation and on the Board of Directors for the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum on the Governance Committee. She is a member of the Crystal Charity Ball Committee, The Dallas Assembly, and a volunteer at St. Mark's School of Texas and Parish Episcopal School.

Charmaine received a Bachelor of Science from New York University's Stern School of Business in Finance and Accounting. She is a proud graduate of Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan. Born and raised in New York City, Charmaine is married to a Texan and is the mother of two wonderful children. In her free time, she is an avid skier and bookworm.