

H100 Latina Giving Circle - 2024 Grant Guidelines

Complete Grant Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 3, 2024

Mission

The mission of the H100 Latina Giving Circle at Texas Women's Foundation is to encourage philanthropy in the Hispanic/Latina community to contribute strategically and meaningfully throughout the DFW area. The H100 Latina Giving Circle provides the opportunity to learn about issues and organizations that affect and impact Hispanic women and girls.

Value Statements

- Intentionality – we support organizations with a clear understanding of the social and economic issues and who have a clear vision, strong leadership, influential partnerships, and lasting stakeholder relationships to effectuate positive change.
- Inclusion – we fund organizations that treat everyone with respect and dignity. We support organizations that partner with active community leaders as stakeholders in identifying solutions and services.
- Integrity - We value organizations that uphold the highest standards of transparency, accountability and that are data-driven and committed to evidence-based decision-making.

Target Funding Areas (Geography and Key Issues)

We seek to fund proposals for the 2024 giving cycle from North Texas-based non-profit organizations located in Dallas, Collin, and Tarrant counties, empowering Hispanic women and girls to achieve their potential and supporting the underserved Hispanic community of North Texas in general.

Human Safety & Security – Healthcare services, human safety, childhood literacy & education, family support (childcare services, parental or caregiving education), bilingual services, Hispanic women’s civil rights services, integrative financial support and literacy, and food security.

Learning and Development – Job readiness, college readiness, career readiness, and return to work programs.

Grant Limits

H100 Latina Giving Circle grant-making up to $10,000 per non-profit per year.

Grant Decision Making Criteria

Economic Empowerment – programs and services that help improve the long-term economic circumstances of Hispanic women and children to empower their families and communities. Programs and services include job-, college- and career-readiness programs, STEM programs, and safety and security programs.

Data-Driven Impact – Clearly understand the issue(s) and have designed programs and services that effectively address the needs of Hispanic women and girls, followed by data to support short-term and long-term improved social impact.

Cultural Awareness and Inclusion - Demonstrate cultural awareness and responsiveness; have both bi-lingual services, content, and other specific skills to address the needs of Hispanic women and girls. Demonstrated support for all women and girls, inclusive of sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression.

Community Commitment - Organizations with a history of working with under-resourced or marginalized Hispanic women and girls have directed more resources/programs to serve the community over time.
